

Listed Buildings by Parish

Bradley

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80286	White House Bradley Pastures Bradley Derbyshire DE6 1LP	Farmhouse. Early C19. Cement rendered with plain tile roofs, hipped at one end and with gables with brick gable end stacks at the other end. One brick ridge stack, Two storeys. West elevation - three bays, central doorway with Tuscan Doric porch. C20 door with rectangular overlight. Flanked on each side by glazing bar sashes. Three similar glazing bar sashes above, South elevation with two glazing bar sashes to each floor, East elevation of five bays with a central full height canted bay and deeply overhanging eaves. Three glazing bar sashes to each floor of the canted bay. To the left, two blocked windows and one glazing bar sash and one blocked window above. To the right, two C20 windows and two glazing bar sashes above.	II	14/06/1984
80287	Hole In The Wall Farm Yeldersley Lane Brailsford Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 1LQ	Cottages. 1750-51. Red brick with stone dressings. Plain tile roofs with stone coped gables and two brick ridge stacks. Two cottages linked by an arch through which the road passes. Projecting stable wing to the south. Two storeys. North elevation, symmetrical five bays. Central archway with brick voussoirs, projecting stone imposts and a keystone inscribed AR 1751. Blocked 2-light square sectioned flush mullion window above. Flanked on each side by two 2-light square sectioned flush mullion windows to ground and first floor. South elevation with C20 porch to the left of the arch and to the right, a doorway with plain stone jambs and lintel and a C20 panelled door and a C20 casement window. Three 2-light mullion windows above. Keystone to the arch dated 1750.	II	13/09/1967

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80288	Wayside Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire DE6 1PG	House. Built in 1831-2 as the rectory, altered c.1920s. Rough cast walls, plain tile roof and four rough cast stacks rising from half way down the pitch of the roof and linked by a straight-topped wall the height of the apex of the roof. Two storeys. East elevation with central wood and glazed porch with double doors. Door within the porch with wooden surround and a rectangular overlight and C19 six-panelled door. To the left, a long rectangular window and a glazing-bar- sash, Another glazing bar sash to the right. Three similar windows above.	II	14/06/1984
80289	Churchyard Cross All Saints Church Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire	Cross. Medieval. Sandstone. Square base and square shaft with chamfered angles Listed for Group Value.	II	13/09/1967

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80290	All Saints Church Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire	Church. Late C14 and earlier. Restored C19. Coursed squared sandstone and ashlar. Low pitched lead roof with stone coped gables. Nave and lower chancel in one. South elevation of four bays, divided by buttresses with two set-offs, Western bay with a single chamfered EE doorway with hoodmould. C19 four panelled door. In each of the three other bays, a 2-light C14 window of two cusped lancets with a quatrefoil above, the bottom of which is drawn down into an ogee. Hoodmoulds with headstops. All much restored in C19. In the third bay from the west, also a low, blocked, priests doorway with depressed round arch and hoodmould. The buttress to the right was heightened in C19 (blocking a 2-light clerestory window) and is capped by a polygonal chimney. To the nave, a C17 clerestory with two plain 2-light chamfered mullion windows. East window of c1300 with intersecting tracery of 3-lights. Hoodmould with headstops. The tracery much renewed in C19. North elevation, east to west. Angle buttress, a 2-light window as on the south side, buttress, another similar windows to the nave, a blocked square window with chamfered surround, above the stump of a buttress, another similar 2-light window and a half blocked EE doorway matching that on the south side, with a clerestory window above, as on the south side. The west window is a replacement of 1901, matching the east window, but of greater height. Bell fixed to the west wall. Restorations in 1836, 1843, chancel re-roofed in 1856, nave roof repaired in 1894 and restoration in 1901 by Hunter & Woodhouse of Belper. Interior - C19 pews with ogee traceried ends, brought from St Alkmunds, Derby in 1967. Matching pulpit. Either side of the east window, two large head corbels, early C14. Wall monuments - to the right of the east window, to Emma Harriet Scambella 1821, Signed Watson Feet, an obelisk back plate with marble pedestal and draped urn. To the left of the east window, to William Tyson, died 1843, and Lucia	IISTAR	13/09/1967

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
		his wife, died 1848. Slate back plate with marble sarcophagus and coat of arms above. Signed M W Johnson, New Road, London. South wall - memorial to Thomas Archer, Commander in the Royal Navy, died 1853. By M W Johnson. A scroll over an anchor. Another to Mary, widow of Thomas Archer, died 1865. Marble sarcophagus on a slate back plate. By Patterson of Manchester. Brass wall plate to William Tomkinson, died 1901, and his wife, Mary, died 1900. By Jones & Willis Ltd. Also on the south wall an C18 painted hatchment. One stained glass window, chancel south, date of death 1901. Font, a circular bowl with bold trefoil motif and fleur de lys between, on a base of clustered filleted shafts. Listed for Group Value.

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80291	Bradley Hall Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire DE6 1PG	Country house - Mid C18 and early C19. Built as stables to a new hall which was never built and subsequently made into the hall itself. Red brick and plain tile hipped roofs with gables in the middle of the west and east elevations. Six brick stacks. Two storeys. West elevation of ten irregular bays. Left to right. Glazing bar sash with a C20 canted oriel window above. Flat headed Venetian window with two plain sashes above. Gabled bay with central doorway with glazed double doors and flanked on each side by plain sash windows. Venetian window above, string course at the sill and at springing of arch of central light. Oculus window in the gable. To the right, a plain sash with similar above and a broad canted bay window with three plain sashes to each floor and a parapet. To the right again, a plain sash with similar above and a bay window. All windows with voussoirs and keystones linked to the moulded eaves cornice. The south elevation has a Diocletion window to the first floor and the east elevation has a single storey lean-to corridor running almost the full length of the building. Interior with full height entrance hall with c1740 staircase with turned balusters. Doorways with moulded surrounds and open pediments, mid C18. Chimney piece with bolection moulding. Listed for Group Value.	II	05/02/1952

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80292	Stable Block Bradley Hall Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire DE6 1PG	Stable block (now house, outbuildings and garages). Mid C18. Brick with plain tile roof, brick gable end stacks and brick ridge stacks. Two storeys. South elevation - right to left, two segmental carriage arches with keystones and plank doors. Remains of a third arch cut into by a glazing bar sash and a doorway. Three blocked windows above with keystones. C20 casement window between two of them and a glazing bar sash partly obliterating the third. Small square window beneath the eaves. Originally attached to the hall. Listed for group value only. Listed for Group Value.	II	14/06/1984
80293	Bradley Hall Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire DE6 1PG	Retaining wall. Early C19. Brick. Approximately eight feet high and three hundred feet long. Listed for group value only. Listed for Group Value.	II	14/06/1984
80294	The Water Tower Bradley Hall Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire	Water Tower east of Bradley Hall (formerly listed as Tower near Hall) Water tower. Late C18. Red brick and plain tile pyramidal roof. Plain elevation to east and south, North elevation with small square opening, high up, with stone lintel and projecting sill, West elevation with round arched doorway. Double doors with glazed fanlight above, Rectangular opening above with dovecote. The brickwork is corbelled out at the top. Listed for Group Value.	II	13/09/1967

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80295	Crowtrees Farm Yew Tree Lane Bradley Derbyshire DE6 1PG	Farmhouse. Early C18. Brick with plain tile roof and stone coped gables with plain kneelers. Brick gable end stacks. Two storeys. South elevation - five bays. Central doorway with moulded stone surround. Panelled door with blocked overlight with a mullion. To the right, a C19 wooden cross window and to the right again a glazing bar sash. To the left, a blocked window and to the left again, a glazing bar sash. To the first floor, a large glazing bar sash in the centre. To the right, two smaller glazing bar sashes and to the left a blocked window and a glazing bar sash. All the windows have brick voussoirs and a keystone. Double string band above ground floor and above first floor. Moulded stone eaves band.	II	14/06/1984
Total	10			