

Listed Buildings by Parish

Offcote And Underwood

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80324	Sandybrook Hall Buxton Road Sandybrook Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 2AQ	House. c1812-15. Brick, cement rendered, Slate hipped roofs with brick ridge stacks and eaves stacks. Three storey main block and two storey service wing to the north. West elevation of three storey block. Seven bays. Central doorway with stone Tuscan Doric porch, the entablature extending over narrow glazing bar sashes on each side. Part glazed double doors, with semi-circular fanlight above. Glazing bar sash above and a smaller glazing bar sash above again. Flanked on each side by full height canted bays with three glazing bar sashes to each floor of each bay, diminishing in height. The central window of the top floor of each bay is blind. Five bay south elevation with a pediment over the centre bay. Entrance hall with stone and tiled floor. Cantilevered stone dogleg staircase with three flights, lit by a semi-circular headed window with gothick glazing bars. Metal banisters with a pattern of elongated intersecting ovals -and Greek key. Doorcases panelled and fluted. Listed for Group Value.	II	13/09/1967

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80325	Sandybrook Country Park Buxton Road Sandybrook Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 2AQ	Stables. Early C19. Brick with sandstone dressings. Hipped slate roofs with brick stacks. Two storeys, arranged around three sides of a courtyard. West elevation of middle block, three bays with the centre bay advanced beneath a pediment, with a clock with stone surround set within the pediment. Open cupola. Centre carriage entrance with segmental arch and banded stone surround. Plain sash above with stone lintel and keystone. Flanked on each side by semi-circular headed doorways with moulded stone surrounds and panelled doors with overlights, with similar plain sashes above. Stone string band linking the sills of the first floor windows. Listed for Group Value. Now part of Sandybrook County Park	II	14/06/1984
80326	Sandybrook Hall Buxton Road Sandybrook Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 2AQ	Walls and gate piers. Early C19, Brick walls and sandstone gate piers. The gate piers are square in plan and are rusticated with pyramidal caps. Plain brick walls with soldier course along the top. Approximately eight feet high and 500 feet long. Included for group value only.	II	14/06/1984

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80327	The Green Hall Ashbourne Green Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 1JB	House. Early C18. Red brick with sandstone dressings. Plain tile roofs with two brick eaves stacks, two brick stacks in the pitch of the roof and an external stone stack, brick in its upper parts. Two and a half storeys. East elevation of five bays. Twin gabled with stone copings and banded ball finials, the gables linked by a stone balustrade. Projecting quoins. Central doorway with five steps up. Wooden doorcase with bracketed segmental pediment. Six panelled raised and fielded door with rectangular overlight. Glazing bar sash above. Giant rusticated pilasters on either side with plain entablature, linked to the balustrade. Gabled bays to the left with two glazing bar sashes to the ground floor, two similar above and above again. The gabled bays to the right mirrors the left gable bay. All the windows have brick voussoirs and small keystones. South elevation with a round-arched staircase window and oculus window above. Flat roofed C20 single storey extension. C19 extensions to the west. Interior said to contain timber framed walls. Listed for Group Value.	II	13/09/1967
80328	Green Hall Cottage Ashbourne Green Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 1JB	House and outbuildings under one roof. 1751. Brick with plain tile hipped roof. Two storeys. South east elevation of seven irregular bays. Off centre doorway with C19 half glazed door. To the right, a semi-circular arched window with gothic glazing bars. Two similar windows to the left and between them a mounting block. Above the doorway, a similar, but smaller, window with gothic glazing bars and to the right a later small square window and a 2-light casement window. To the left, two small rectangular windows. Moulded eaves cornice. South west elevation with the initials RH and date 1751 in blue brick headers. Listed for Group Value.	II	14/06/1984

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80329	Grove Hall Ashbourne Green Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 1JD	House. Early C19. Cement rendered. Plain tiled hipped roof behind parapets. Three brick ridge stocks. Two storeys. In plan a rectangle with polygonal ends and a canted bay to the south. South elevation of seven bays. Centre canted bay with three tall windows to the ground floor with small panes, the centre window with French doors. Flanked, on each side by glazing bar sashes, the one to the left broader. Five glazing bar sashes above. End bays with pointed windows, the arches with straight shanks and glazing bar sashes. The polygonal west end is castellated.	II	14/06/1984
80330	Ox Close Ashbourne Green Ashbourne Derbyshire DE6 1JD	Farmhouse. Mid-C17. Coursed rubble limestone with sandstone dressings. Plain tile roofs with stone coped gables with moulded kneelers. A ball finial on the west gable end. Central brick stack, partly rendered and a brick gable end stack. Unequal T-plan, two storeys plus attics. Flush quoins. South elevation, three bays. Central doorway with chamfered quoins and lintel. Half glazed C19 door. To the left, a 3-light recessed chamfer mullion window with drip mould. Similar window above and a similar 2-light window above the door. To the right, low down, a broad 2-light recessed chamfer mullion window. 3-light recessed chamfer mullion window with drip mould above and a similar 3-light window without drip mould above again. West gable end with a 3-light recessed chamfer mullion window with drip mould to the ground floor with similar window above and above again and a blocked single light window with drip mould in the gable. All other elevations with single light, 2-light and 3-light recessed chamfer mullion windows. The north elevation has one C20 window insertion.	II	14/06/1984

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80331	Grange Barn Kniveton Derbyshire DE6 1JQ	Farm buildings. 1870. Brick with plain tile roofs. Arranged around three sides of a courtyard. Two storeys. Irregular openings, doors and windows with basket arches and chamfered surrounds. Diamond shaped and arrow slit breathers. Date- stone dated 1870 on the east elevation. Listed for group value only.	II	10/07/1975
80332	Offcote Grange Kniveton Derbyshire DE6 1JQ	House. Early C18. Brick with stone dressings. Plain tile roof with stone coped gables and kneelers. Brick gable end stacks. Three storeys to the south, two storeys to the north. South elevation - three bays. Central doorway with chamfered stone surround and quoins. Part glazed double doors, the middle panel raised and fielded. Flanked on each side by tripartite glazing bar sashes, Three glazing bar sashes above, the centre one narrower, and three similar, but smaller, windows above again. Brick stringcourse between each floor. Brick eaves cornice. West elevation with three blocked 2-light square section stone mullion windows. Interior with wooden staircase with fretted balusters and polygonal ball finials. Listed for Group Value.	II	24/06/1975
80333	Green Farm Kniveton Derbyshire DE6 1JQ	Farmhouse containing crucks. Early C17, substantially remodelled in late C20. Cement rendered. Plain tile roof with one brick stack in the pitch of the roof. Single storey with attics. Little on the exterior betrays the historic origins. Lobby entrance, longhouse plan. South elevation of four bays. Central doorway flanked on each side by two C20 casement windows. Two C20 flat-roofed dormers above. West elevation with a single light fire window with chamfered stone surround. Inside are two cruck trusses.	II	14/06/1984

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
80334	Mile Stone Mayfield Road Ashbourne Derbyshire	The grid reference shall be amended to read: NGR 166 458 ----- Mile post. 1834 by James Bassett. Cast iron. Cylindrical upper part with curved top on a narrower cylindrical stem. Inscribed on the upper part: LEEK/14/MILES/ASHBN/1/MILE; around-the-top : JAMES BASSETT ASHBOURNE 1834 and vertically up the stem LONDON 140 MILES	II	14/06/1984
80335	Sturston Hall Mill Lane Sturston Derbyshire DE6 1LN	House. C17 with C19 alterations and additions. Roughcast walls and brick. Plain tile roofs with stone coped gables and plain kneelers. Four brick stacks. T-plan with C19 addition to the north. Two storeys. Chamfered plinth. West elevation, double fronted. Central doorway with stone surround and cambered head. C20 half-glazed door. Flanked on each side by wooden cross windows with ovolo moulded stone surrounds. Two similar windows above. South elevation with two similar windows to the gabled bay and in the gable a partly blocked 3-light chamfer mullion window. To the right, two original cross windows with ovolo moulded stone surrounds and ovolo moulded mullion and transom. In the north gable a similar 3-light window to the one in the south gable. Lower mid- C19 wing to the north east. Interior not inspected but reported to have a C17 dogleg staircase.	II	14/06/1984
Total	12			